

FSC® Self-Declaration

By signing this document, our company confirms that it has read and understood the core values of the FSC®, as defined in FSC-POL-01-004 V3-0 “Policy for Association” and published on www.fsc.org. In summary, the organization declares its agreement that, currently and in the future, for as long as a relationship with FSC exists, it will not be directly or indirectly involved in any of the following unacceptable activities:

- a) Illegal logging or trade in illegally harvested timber or forest products;
- b) Violation of human rights and traditional or civil rights in forestry operations;
- c) Violation of workers’ rights and the principles defined by the International Labour Organization (ILO);
- d) Destruction of forests with high conservation values through forest management activities;
- e) Significant conversion of natural forests to plantations or non-forest uses;
- f) Introduction of genetically modified tree species into forest areas;
